About this book

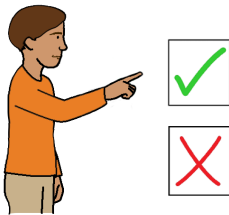

This book is written by Scope.

This book is about privacy and mandatory reporting.

Your information is private.

Private means I will not share your information unless you say yes.

I must share some of your information.

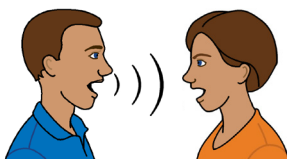

For example, if I think

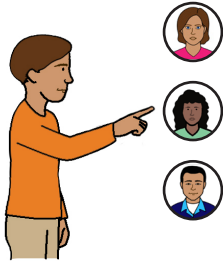

- you are not safe

- someone has broken the law.

I will tell you who will hear your information.

You can tell me if you want someone else to hear the information instead.

I can tell the person or we can do it together.
